

BOMB RUINED 60 PERCENT OF HIROSHIMA

The War Today..

Japan Destruction

By DeWITT MacKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

IT IS WITH VAST PRIDE in an epochal discovery, but in no spirit of evaluation, that we learn from our own authorities that 60 per cent of the great city of Hiroshima was wiped out by the single atomic bomb dropped on it, and from Japanese spokesmen that virtually all living things in this industrial and military center were "literally scared to death."

Exclusive possession of the atomic bomb has placed the United States and its Allies in the peculiar position of being able to destroy Japan almost at will. Yet I venture to say that most Allied folk are hoping that the Tokyo government will show reason and surrender so as to remove the necessity of such terrible retribution.

There are those who hold that the world would be better off without the Japanese race—and I've heard that claimed within the hour. They advance as argument the military aggression and frightful savagery shown by the Japs during the past eight years in the war against China and finally against the other United Nations. And certainly there is enough evidence to hang the race, what with the rape and rapine and physical torture and murder which the Mikado's fighting forces have practiced throughout these eight long years.

Still, I believe that even the proponents of destruction for the Japanese nation would, for the most part, really prefer to see the war settled more in the spirit of our new peace organization. As for the Allied governments, they have made it clear that they don't want to have to administer the coupe de grace to Nippon.

President Truman has given Tokyo fresh warning in his statement announcing the terrifying creation of the atomic bomb. One would expect a further formal ultimatum, calling on the Japanese to surrender forthwith or suffer the extreme penalty. That should bring capitulation if the war lords have even a grain of common sense.

The Japanese government knows that there's no question of the Allies trying to bluff. The atomic bomb is no propaganda stunt. And how can Tokyo be sure of that? For the very simple reason that the Allies have had to hang their bomb on the line for all to see. They had to give Japan a demon-

BOND ISSUE ON RESERVOIR IS APPROVED

Legislation On $100,000 Issue Passed Tuesday By City Council

Final legislative action preparatory to the issuance of $100,000 in mortgage bonds to finance construction of new 3,000,000 gallon water reservoir, laying of new pipelines and other improvements to the city's water department was completed by city council last night.

The council passed legislation authorizing issuance of the bonds, to be retired from income of the water department over a ten-year period, after more than a month's investigation. Interest on the bonds was stipulated at a maximum of one and one-half per cent.

Nearly half the cost of the reservoir project is to be financed from surplus funds now in the water fund but the additional money raised by bond issue is to complete the project and to provide an assurance that sufficient money will be available as needed.

Dealings are to be completed through the Squire, Sanders and Dempsey Cleveland law firm.

Higher Issue Rejected
It was originally proposed that an issue of $200,000 be made, but council decided the water department's income was not sufficient to finance such an issue.

Council referred to the streets and alleys committee last night a request by G. R. Deming, president of the Deming Co., that Aetna st., between S. Broadway and S. Ellis, west ave., be repaired and resurfaced.

A request from Louis H. Brush for a fire protection water line on S. Lundy ave., between Franklin and Aetna streets, was referred to the water committee.

Council heard final readings and passed measures granting payment of back pay to a part time clerk in the board of health office and authorizing the city solicitor to enter into a contract with the Gonda Engineering Co. for use of the city's sewage line at the W. State st. city limits.

An ordinance transferring $600 to the relief fund from the general fund was passed.

The Farmers National bank was re-appointed depository for the city's funds for a two-year period.

COUNCIL ADOPTS BUDGET FOR '46

City council last night adopted its budget for 1946 to be forwarded to the county budget commission for final approval.

The budget is substantially the same as the 1945 estimate and is to be used as a guide for the annual appropriation measure. A sharp decrease is noted in the city's bonded indebtedness as plans call for the retiring of $22,400 worth of bonds during 1946.

At the close of 1945, it is estimated that $22,400 will have been retired, bringing the bonded debt down to a $82,800 mark. City Auditor Karl Webster explained. This figure is not quite as large a retirement as in 1944, when a fire truck bond was not included in the retirement figure.

A slight decrease is estimated in the gasoline tax street repairs fund, although the change is less than $3,000 and it is expected to exceed actual estimates.

DRIVERS TO GET BETTER GAS SOON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—A little relief is due soon from those plunging automobile motors.

The amount of premium gasoline available to civilian motorists is to be doubled to approximately 158,000 barrels daily.

The Petroleum Administration for War said reduced military demands for aviation fuel as a result of victory in Europe had made a little more tetraethyl lead available for motor gasoline. Tetraethyl lead is what takes the knock out of motors.

School Board Petition Is Filed By Hochadel

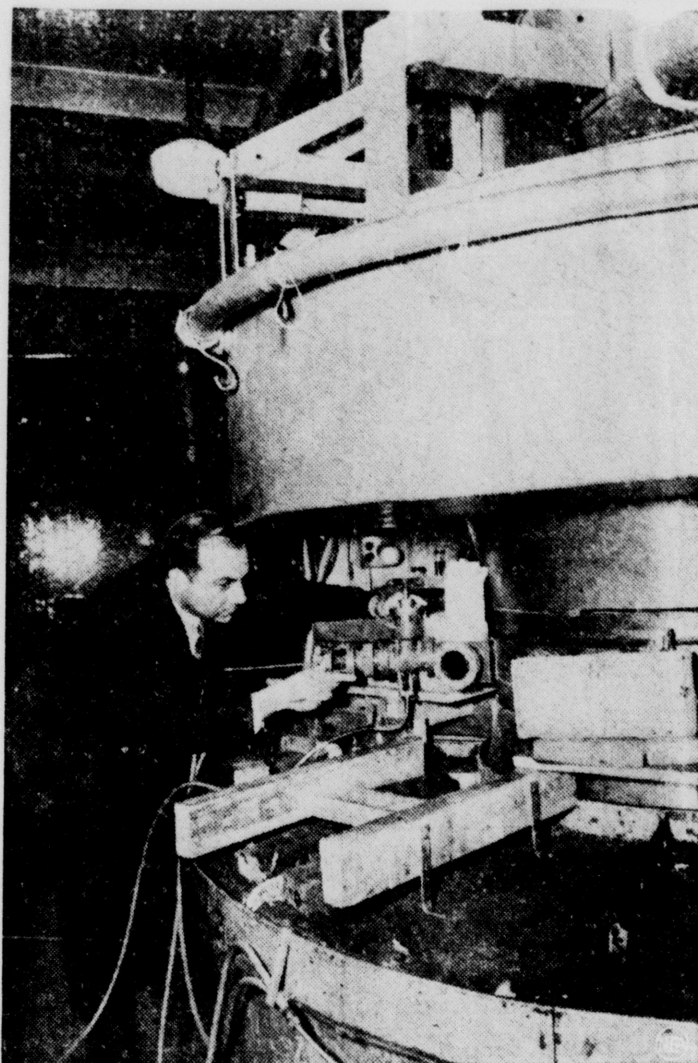

John P. Hochadel, Homeworth ave., today became the first Salemite to file for a board of education petition with the county board of elections. Two positions on the board are to be filled by the voters in November.

In Leetonia three filings have been made. Charles T. Steits, D. F. Grappy and E. Walter Berg have declared their candidacies.

Deadline for filings is 6:30 tonight at the board offices in East Liverpool.

Two of four men who pried loose the secret of the atom that led to the atomic bomb used against Japan are shown above and at right. Dr. John R. Dunning adjusts Columbia university's cyclotron in which smashing of uranium atoms was first achieved. Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, a foremost physicist, is credited by Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, with being largely responsible for development of the atomic bomb. On leave from the University of California, Dr. Oppenheimer has charge of technical laboratories in Los Alamos, N. M., where atomic tests have been under way since 1943 in the famed Harvard cyclotron.

INCENDIARIES HIT TWO MORE JAP CITIES

B-29s Carry New Blows To Fukuyama, Yawata, Steel Center

(By Associated Press)

GUAM, Aug. 8.—American B-29s fire-bombed another forewarned Japanese city today, more than 190 of the Superforts raiding Fukuyama on Honshu island shortly before midnight in the fourth attack of the day on homeland targets.

The raid on Fukuyama, bringing to 61 the number of cities scorched by 20th air force incendiaries, topped day-long Superfort flights. They started with an escorted daylight bombing of Yawata, Pittsburgh of Japan, by 225 Superforts.

Yawata was also on the list of cities warned by leaflets and radio that they are marked for destruction unless Japan surrendered.

Hit Aircraft Plant
More than 50 B-29s, striking in late afternoon, hit the Nakajima-Mushino-Tama aircraft plant in the Tokyo area while a smaller force dropped heavy demolition explosives on the Tokyo arsenal.

Other Superforts mined waters around four important port cities on Honshu island and Korea.

Fukuyama, with a population of 57,000, is on the Sanyo main railroad 42 miles northeast of Kure on the Inland sea. It is headquarters for a military unit and the home of many small industries producing aircraft parts.

The main urban area is about one and one half square miles with the built up area measuring about one square mile.

Industries at Fukuyama include the Imperial dye works, Kawasaki Aircraft Co. and the Mitsubishi Electric Co.

The city was among those warned of destruction by leaflets scattered from B-29s July 31.

Superforts of Brig. Gen. Roger M. Ramsey's Tenth Bomber Group, 58th Bombardment wing made the attack.

100 Enrolled For New Trades Class

Interest in Trades Extension training showed a marked increase over the past few years as nearly 100 people enrolled last night in the evening classes, conducted at the High school building each Tuesday.

Holland W. Cameron, class coordinator, said today that Tuesday's enrollment for evening classes was the highest recorded here since before the war started. All courses were well filled and nearly every industrial firm in the Salem area is represented.

Registration will continue this week, with Saturday morning class registration scheduled from 8 until 11:30 p. m. Saturday at the office in the High school. A large registration is expected then, Cameron said.

The enrollment in the evening sessions last year was between 60 and 70 students.

ONLY ONE HURT IN 4-VEHICLE MISHAP

State highway patrolmen investigated a four vehicle accident on Route 14, west of Columbiana, at 2 p. m. yesterday. One person received a minor injury.

The mishap occurred when a Bell Telephone Co. automobile stopped on Route 14 to make a turn. A truck, driven by August Beiter, of New Kensington, Pa., was struck in the rear as Beiter pulled out to pass the car by a truck driven by Albert Blosser, 16, of Columbiana. He suffered a scalp injury.

The second truck was struck in the rear by a Herron Transfer Co. truck, driven by Clarence Vickers, 28, of Salem, as it struck the first truck.

Victor Novak, 25, of Sharon, Pa., was fined $20 and costs in Mayor R. R. Johnson's court yesterday following his arrest on a charge of speeding. He was arrested by state patrolmen on Route 62, west of Salem.

Some 1,800 other CIO-United Steelworkers have been idle for nine days as the result of the walkout staged to enforce a demand for definite job assignments.

The WLB order was issued following a show-cause hearing in Cleveland yesterday at which Sam Evans, chairman of the union's grievance committee, said the men were ordered to act as millwrights and do "dangerous" work.

Evans said the four maintenance workers who attended the hearing instructed him to inform the board they would not go back to those "dangerous" jobs.

The WLB said "All men should be returned to work and the question of the justice of the company's position should be immediately handled through the grievance machinery in the contract."

Plans were announced for the annual club picnic for members and their families on Aug. 21 at the Country club. Lewis Freeman is program chairman.

Golf and Dinner Enjoyed By Lions Club Members

Twenty-five members of the Lions club and several guests enjoyed a golf party and dinner Tuesday at the Valley Golf club near Columbiana.

Darrel Rosenberg was chairman of the program. Winners included: Low score, Orein Naragon; high score, Richard Spedel; putting contest, Emory DeMers and Howard Heston; shortest drive, Ray Dean; miniature golf, Clifford Zimmerman and Harold Shears.

The annual picnic will be held at 4 p. m. Tuesday at the Country club for members, their families and guests. Ray Stiver is general chairman.

A program of sports will begin at 4, headed by a softball game. Dinner will be served at 6:15.

Nothing Left Unscathed, Is Tokyo Report

BULLETIN

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—President Truman announced today that Russia has declared war on Japan.

Mr. Truman made the momentous announcement to a hurriedly summoned news conference.

He said he had only a simple statement to make but it was so important he could not delay it.

The disclosure that the Soviet union at last had pitted its enormous might alongside Britain and the United States against the Pacific enemy had not been unexpected.

Official Washington at once took this development, along with the unleashing of atomic bombing against the Pacific enemy, as a sure sign that Japan can not long continue to resist.

(By The Associated Press)

GUAM, Aug. 8.—The obliterating blast of a single atomic bomb dropped by a lone Superfort destroyed 60 per cent of the important Japanese city of Hiroshima and today Tokyo admitted that practically nothing escaped death in its scorching path.

"Those outdoors burned to death, while those indoors were killed by indescribable pressure and heat," reported Tokyo. It said the city was in "disastrous ruin" and that houses and buildings were "crushed."

The newspaper Asahi Shimbun appealed to the people to remain calm under the "inhuman" bombing and "pledge to fight through until the last." The editorial declared the Japanese mind had been "trained for just such an occasion as this."

Gen. Spaatz warned the enemy more B-29s are ready to drop more of the world's most destructive explosives on the island cities if resistance continues.

The Strategic air forces commander said that 4.1 square miles of Hiroshima's built-up area of 6.9 square miles were wiped out. Five military targets were destroyed by the one bomb. The communiqué did not identify them.

Grim details of what happened on the ground came only from Tokyo. The enemy broadcast revealed the blast was so terrible that the dead could not be distinguished from the injured. Neither could be identified. Destruction was so great, and need for relief so urgent, that authorities had been unable to establish the extent of civilian casualties.

Spaatz based his communiqué on photographs from the sky. They showed the heart of the city devastated with awful thoroughness—as if a giant bulldozer had swept up buildings and houses and dumped them into a river.

High Flying Camera Planes Get Evidence
Reconnaissance disclosed that the harbor area of Hiroshima—population of about 343,000—was barely touched by the tremendous blast.

But the concussion, or fire effect was so overpowering elsewhere that several firebreaks and seven streams—one stream was about three city blocks wide—failed to stop the flames.

The high-flying camera planes circled Hiroshima a few hours after Monday's attack and found only two small fires still burning. The remainder of the city appeared burned to ashes. The lens caught photographic proof that one bomb, small enough to be carried by any American bomber or fighter plane, packs more death and destruction than thousands of tons of ordinary fire and demolition bombs.

American officers who studied the pictures said the destruction was about the same as they would expect from a force of about 150 Superforts, each carrying seven tons of incendiary and demolition bombs.

The city, which will go down in history as the testing ground for man's most awful weapon, was unprepared for such a swift, crushing blow. The Japanese had prepared their defense well against Superforts and firebombs, but they were as nothing against the atom.

Tightly congested Hiroshima had a population roughly midway between that of Denver and Seattle, respectively 322,412 and 368,302 in 1940. But Denver covers 58.7 square miles and Seattle 80.7 square miles. Physically the destroyed area approximated that of Bayonne, N. J., an industrial seaport with a population of but 79,198 in 1940.

The high degree of concentration undoubtedly added to the extent of Hiroshima's destruction.

Only A Few Concrete Structures Left Standing
In the heart of the city, a few concrete structures remain standing, like bleak sentinels over a scene of ruin. They are believed to be air raid shelters. Photographs indicate they were burned out.

An expert at U. S. army strategic air force headquarters said there was no comparison between the first caused by the atomic bomb and normal conflagrations. When Yokohama was burned by incendiaries, he said, it looked as if smoke pots were burned throughout the city. At Hiroshima, a white plume of smoke rose thousands of feet into the air. Crewmen of the B-29 which dropped the bomb said it rose 40,000 feet.

At the base of this high-necked mushroom was a cloud-like accumulation which was believed to be dust blown into the air by the tremendous concussion.

In that one, swift, devastating strike, a B-29 piloted by Col. Paul W. Tibbets, Jr., wrought as great damage as normally is inflicted by large force of the sky giants. The seven and several miles high, itself was rocked as if an anti-aircraft shell had burst close by.

There was no hint from USASTAF when the next atomic bomb would be dropped, but Washington and London toyed with the theory that Japan soon would be given a final additional surrender ultimatum before the next atom is dropped. Spaatz said that the Japanese would be warned by leaflets that they could expect more such raids.

Spaatz termed the new weapon "the most revolutionary development in the history of the world" and said "it would have shortened the war (in Europe) six to eight months."

There would have been "no need to have had D-Day in Europe" if the bomb had been developed earlier, asserted Maj. Gen. Curtis Lemay, his chief of staff.

Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, World war I ace, quickly predicted that aerial assaults alone would knock Japan out of the war.

Correspondents Tell of Interesting Island War Happenings

By ROBBIN COONS

PACIFIC WAR BASE—The connection between lemon chiffon pie and Rear Adm. Calvin Thornton's complete war effort may seem ephemeral. And yet the fate of nations has hung on similar gossamer threads.

Durkin, commander escort carrier force, U. S. Pacific fleet, has a tale. If you're lucky in these parts, the admiral will invite you aboard the CVE (that's navy talk for "escort carrier") for lunch.

You'll be lucky not only because the 45-year-old host is salty and genial but also because the chef is likely to whip up a lemon chiffon pie. The chef is Chief Cook Edward McClinton of De Quincy, Calif.

I asked about that dream pie and learned something. Durkin tasted it first as guest of another admiral who also had a cook. He dispatched his chef McClinton into conference with that other cook—and shortly thereafter McClinton was placing the delicacy before his own boss.

Durkin's interest in pie perfection extends to "recipes" for improving his operation and effectiveness of his escort carrier forces.

He's always sending some of us along with the fast carriers—just to see how they do it on the big ones," one of his aides commented.

Durkin, who hails from Palmyra, N. J., believes in his CVE's. It was who first used the escort carrier to supply air support to an amphibious invasion—in the south of France. He is, as one of his squadron commanders said, the "one man who has made the CVE an offensive weapon."

In the Pacific, where land bases are even more remote, Durkin convincingly proved their value for close-in support in the Lingayen, Luzon and Okinawa landings. At Okinawa his ships remained offshore 20 days, flew 35,000 sorties and shot down 270 enemy planes at a cost of 13 pilots and crewmen.

The escorts, built on converted tankers and merchant ship hulls, originated as an emergency idea after Pearl Harbor, their main purpose being to transport navy and marine fighters to war areas—the "have drags," as it is called.

But Durkin believes the CVE idea will be developed into a distinctive type of ship, with improved design to eliminate its present vulnerability.

Which may be why he sends his men out for ideas—just as he sends his cook out to bring back lemon chiffon pie.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

I see little Johnny Green is back

Time goes so quickly . . .

Before you know it, the runty boy in knee pants has sprouted into manhood.

The freckle-faced girl in pigtails is a stately woman, walking to the altar on her father's arm.

The "baby of the family" is packing up for his first year at the University.

Time goes so quickly . . .

You know this to be true, but don't let yourself ever forget it.

Keep it in mind, particularly, every time you look at a crisp, new War Bond you've just bought.

Keep it in mind every time you count over the Bonds you own—the E Bonds with your name on them and your Uncle Sam's promise to pay you back $4 for every $3 in ten short years.

Before you know it, you'll be living in the time when those Bonds are coming due for their full value.

And you'll be doing the very things you dream of today as you put your money into Bonds.

You will—that is—if you've held on to your Bonds.

Remember . . . Time goes so quickly.

Chicago Expected To Increase Lead While Tigers Drop One

Washington Looming Up To Replace Bengals In First

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

Chicago should tighten its hold on the National league lead and Washington should pass Detroit in the American league scramble during the intersectional series opening today, according to the past performance charts.

Although the Cubs will be on the road and the Tigers will be home, the results of the first four east vs. west tests reveal the Bruins' strength and the Bengals' weakness against their rivals from the Atlantic seaboard.

The Cubs come east for the last time with a "big four" pitching staff made possible by the addition of Hank Borowy. With Hank Wyse, Paul Derringer and Claude Passeau ready to take their turn, Grimm has Paul Erickson and Hy Vandenberg ready for "spot" duty.

St. Louis is hardly in a position to make a strong bid but with time running out on the champs, Billy Southworth's gang can't afford to wait for their crimples to return. Both Third Basemen, Whitey Kurowski and Pitcher Ted Wilks are back in St. Louis for arm treatments as the Cards prepare to open a New York series with a night game.

Addition of chunky Art Rebel, a stoutish left-handed batter from the Cardinal farm system, and who has been hitting at a .429 clip since moving up, has given the club added power but the pitching has been spotty although improving.

Brooklyn's Arms Weak
Brooklyn, also weak in the mound department, has been unable to overpower the western clubs like it has ridden over the east.

Surprisingly enough the St. Louis Browns have the best intersectional record in the American league, despite their seventh place standing, copping 29 or 49 from the east with Cleveland right behind with 29 of 50. Washington is just over the 500 circle at 25 won and 24 lost but has been hottest on the road where it will be playing for the next two months. Detroit has been plagued by its eastern rivals, losing 24 of 47 to them.

Ossie Bluege's surprising contending pulled through the west, sweeping 11 of 15 last time around, and pulled in within a half game of the pace during their home stand. With six starters ready to go in rotation, Washington is well prepared for the final western tour calling for 20 games.

Although the Tigers' attack is improving, the pitching leans heavily on Hal Newhouse and Al Benton with occasional help from Stubby Overmire.

Sport Chatter

By RUSS NEWLAND

(Pinch Hitting for Hugh Fullerton, Jr.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—Servicemen's Corner: The fighting part of the war has moved away from them but up near the top of the world, patrolling Navy beats in the Aleutians, are many sports figures whose names you will recognize from the days of peace. For instance, Lieut. Comdr. Dave Bartelma, former wrestling coach at the University of Minnesota, and his husky friend, Lieut. Stan Kostka, who helped Minnesota win the mythical national pigskin championship in 1934, later coached at North Dakota state.

In the same theater are Lieut. (jg) Walt Schroeder, Notre Dame footballer of 1938, Lieut. (jg) Allen Sturgis, whose line play with Temple got him a pro grid job with the Philadelphia Eagles, and Lieut. (jg) Fred Maas, who halfbacked at Lafayette and later coached High school football at Nutley, N. J.

Word from the Philippines finds Capt. Marvin (Bud) Ward, National Amateur Golf champ for the duration, transferred from the 85th fighter wing to special service under a four-star general at Army headquarters in Manila. Capt. Ward has accumulated 83 discharge points.

His present job, they say, calls for a Lieut. Colonel's rating. . . . Sgt. Manual Boody, former Denver sports writer, pens from Metz, France, that sports activity is beginning to pick up there. He expects to head for the Pacific shortly.

CUBS HOLD SOME STRANGE POWERS OVER CINCINNATI

Grimm's Charges Shooting For All-Time Victory Record Over Reds

By AL VERMEER

NEW YORK—Some day when science finds a few idle moments on its hands, it might do worse than probe the peculiar power which the Chicago Cubs have exerted this season over the bewildered Cincinnati Reds.

Thirteen times these teams have come together in the National league race and 13 times the Cubs triumphed. Sometimes they handed poor Bill McKechnie's men a robust thumping, other times they just barely skinned him. But always the Cubs won, and this has been the major factor in Chicago's firm hold on first place. Any kind of an even break between the two teams would have reduced the Cubs to second place, lifted Cincinnati into the first division.

Cubs Best
There is no question that Cholly Grimm's Bruins are better than the Reds—but not that much better. This is simply one of those cases which frequently crops up in sports, whereby one team or man seems to hold an inexplicable hex over another, and the matter finally grows from a tiny seed into a gigantic bug-a-boo.

It goes like this: Maybe one club triumphs four of five times in a row. Suddenly it becomes convinced that against this particular foe it can do no wrong and, in the meantime, the other side gradually assumes a reverse attitude. And before you know it you have a case like this one, in which the Cubs can hardly sleep nights, so eager are they to resume relationship with poor Cincinnati.

Shoot High
It has come to the point where the Cubs are talking about reaching the all-time record, which is 21 victories out of 22 games against a given foe. It was the Cubs or, frankly, Chance who first accomplished this feat in 1909, against the Braves. During that season the Braves also dropped 20 out of 21 to Pittsburgh, so you can see they must have had the complex real bad that year.

In 1927 this strange hex reappeared when the Yanks measured St. Louis, 21 games to one, first and only time it ever occurred in the American league. Ten years later Pittsburgh administered a similar dose to Cincinnati to seal the managerial fate of Charlie Dressen.

And now, once more, the monster is on the loose.

BOOSTERS CAPTURE COVETED WIN OVER FIRESTONE CHAMPS

Defeat All-Stars 3-2 In Red-Hot First Place Columbiana Race

Issuing the first defeat since the beginning of the season to the supposedly all-powerful All-Stars, the Columbiana Booster softball team last night cashed in on a golden opportunity and eked out a 3-2 margin over the champs to step into a threatening first place position in the Firestone loop.

Setting the All-Stars down with five lonely hits, Freeman Tyson, Booster mound worker, was backed up by eight telling blows by his teammates. Bus Warrick, veteran left fielder, stole the honors at the plate, clicking safely three times in as many times at bat.

The win was the fourth straight for Tyson in the second half of league play.

John Cabas' single in the second inning scored Barton with the first Booster run. Barton banged out a one banger in the third to score Harry McBride with the second marker. The third came when Clyde Douglas scored after walking. He was driven in on a single by Kenny Dowd. The All-Stars failed to score after the first.

The Case Clippers defeated South Side 9-4 in the other fray as Warren Antram tossed for the winners and Jim Messersmith pitched for the Tigers.

Al Drotfield of the Clippers got three for four at the plate. Tonight the Boosters meet the Leetonia Oldtimers in a special match at 6:30 and Leetonia and Columbiana Junior High boys' teams clash in the second.

TEST FOR TITAN HANOVER NEARING

Three Year Olds' Race of Races Today To Be Largest Ever

By ORLO ROBERTSON

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 8.—The test for the three-year-old trotting championship comes down to the Hambletonian at Good Time park today with Titan Hanover such an outstanding choice that he will be barred from the wagering.

With the Little Baby who hung up a world record of two minutes flat for two year olds last year there'll be 18 other horses in the race for the purse of $51,046.96—the richest since 1932. The 14 colts and five fillies, who will parade to the post for the first of the two out of three mile heats, make up the largest field in the 19-year history of the trotting classic.

The Hambletonian has been won by such great trotters as Greyhound, Rosalind, Volo Song and the Marchioness but none stood out as does the colt that E. Roland Harriman and Major Elbridge Gerry took out of the yearling sales for $3,000. He never has lost a race and prepped for the Blue Ribbon sulky event by winning handily the championship Stallion and National stakes this year.

Titan Hanover Tops

Titan will be in the second tier of the first brush but under Harry Pownall's guidance he should have no trouble going to the front within the first quarter mile and setting the pace the remainder of the way. Barring additional rain the racing strip will be fast but Shirley Hanover's race record of 2:04½ appears safe since Titan is not expected to be extended.

Titan Hanover, rated at 1 to 4 to win, was barred from the wagering after track officials and the New York state racing commission decided there was a probability of a minus place and show pool. Under

SCRIBE FINDS IT USELESS TO TALK WITH BAT CHAMP

Hitting Ball Player Is Wrong Person To See For Interview

By AL VERMEER

NEW YORK—Just as it is foolish to mention butterflies to a bug collector, so it is folly to talk hitting to a ball player, a fact we discovered the other day while loitering on the Brooklyn bench.

Hoping to make pleasant conversation, we mentioned to Goody Rosen that he was certainly having a splendid season at the plate. With a leap and a bound, the little outfielder was upon us, both hands locked upon our lapels.

"Have you been watching me real good?" queried Goody. Have you taken a good look at my stance?"

"Yes, indeed," we parried. "And you look nice and smooth. You sure do."

"No, I don't mean that," said Goody, now running in high gear. "I mean do you notice what I do different than I did last year?"

"Well, not exactly," we confessed, whereupon Rosen took us firmly by the arm and led the way down a flight of steps to a little ante room behind the Dodger dugout.

"Now you stand there," he ordered, pointing to a corner of the six-by-six room, "and I will stand here and show you."

Dangerous Man

Swinging a bat almost as long as himself, Goody began swishing the air while we retreated nervously into that corner, standing as far back in our trousers as possible.

"Now watch the left elbow closely," he said as he flicked a button from his jacket. "Do you notice how I hold it away from the body rather than close in? Well, that is the secret of my good hitting. Holding that left elbow out gives me a free swing, long and full. That gives me my power. Did you notice that ball I parked over them rightfield screens the other afternoon?"

We admitted we had.

"Well," said Goody, "that was a powerful long drive for a little man like me. And I hit 'em like that because of my easy swing."

Size No Factor

Size or weight of drivers doesn't make any difference when it comes to harness racing. Ed Ashton, left, is six feet seven inches tall, weighs 225. Billy Berry is five feet one, and weighs 110. Both drivers have their strings at Saratoga Raceway. Sometimes Billy beats Ed, and vice versa.

Paul Wanner was the same way—free swing, elbow out, lots of power. Meanwhile he kept swishing that bat under our chin, back and forth, back and forth.

"Know what I told the fellows the other day?" continued Goody. "I told them maybe I won't stay among the hitting leaders and maybe I won't even hit 300, but one thing they can be sure of—I will hit the ball squarely all year. Because of my free swing."

Suddenly he stopped swishing and asked, "Any more questions?" We said no, declining to mention we had not asked any questions in the first place.

"Well, I was glad to help you out," exclaimed Rosen and he clapped us on the back and disappeared up the steps to the dugout. Mopping a damp brow, we retired to a seat in the second tier.

Moral: Never talk hitting to a ball player.

OGILVEE, BILL IN TIE FOR OHIO'S OPEN GOLF TITLE

First Round Puts Big Men In Backgrounds As Unknowns Shine

By HAROLD HARRISON

FINDLAY, Aug. 8.—A lot of Ohio golfers were wishing today they had never heard of those soldier-linkmen.

It was Pfc. Jim Milward of Lockbourne Army Air base at Columbus who fired the biggest shot yesterday as he slipped into Findlay and breezed around the Findlay Country club course with a three-under-par 69 to take the lead at the end of the first 18 holes of the Ohio Open golf tournament.

But as if that weren't enough for the poor civilians, there also was Alex Ogilvie, Jr., 23-year-old Cleveland golfer who has been out of the Army only about six weeks, who carved two strokes off par to tie with Carmen Bill of Cleveland for second place with 70 each.

Meanwhile two of the hottest favorites—Denny Shute of Akron and Tony Penna of Dayton—were wallowing among the Johnny-Come-Latelys and facing a terrific job to catch up with the fast flying midland.

Three Break Par
Only three players succeeded in breaking par yesterday in the event which was shortened to 54 holes because of the huge field.

These three of course were Milward, Ogilvie and Bill.

Only three other players succeeded in matching the course's par figures and they included Maurice McCarthy the Cincinnati amateur who last year became the first Simpsongolfer ever to win the open. The others were a couple of unheralded golfers—Leo Anderson of St. Mary's and Andy Mccary of Norwalk.

Bob Kepler of Columbus blew a beautiful chance to be the first day leader. Kepler, the Ohio State university coach, was under par when he made the turn but after that he fell apart and went three over par to finish with a 75.

...an easy way to be neighborly

The kids play together. The families know each other. That's your American neighborhood. At the words Have a Coke, they like to get together for a friendly chat and refreshment. You naturally hear Coca-Cola called by its friendly abbreviation "Coke." Both mean the quality product of The Coca-Cola Company.

USS Iowa's Role In War Demonstrates Need of Battleships

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8. — The Navy said today the exploits of the super-dreadnaught USS Iowa in helping chase the Japanese back to their home islands demonstrate the need for battleships in the modern navy.

The 45,000-ton Iowa recently was disclosed to be shelling enemy homeland installations and factories. Vice Admiral E. L. Cochrane, chief of the navy's bureau of ships, said her activities against the Japanese while traveling the equivalent of six times around the globe in the past year and a half already had "done much toward repaying her initial cost of $110,000,000."

The Iowa was commissioned in February, 1943, and, after her shakedown cruise, carried President Roosevelt to Casablanca for his conference with Prime Minister Churchill. In January, 1944, the ship left Chesapeake Bay for the Pacific and arrived in time to take part in the amphibious operation against Kwajalein island in the Marshalls.

In frequent strikes thereafter, the Iowa accompanied task forces, often protection carriers, against Saipan, Tinian, Okinawa, Formosa, Luzon and the Visayas.

The Iowa's sister ships are the USS New Jersey, Wisconsin and Missouri. Admiral Cochrane said their striking power is "unexcelled on the sea today." The Iowa is 877 feet long and over 108 feet of beam. She carries 16-inch guns.

In the decisive naval fighting off the Philippines last October the Iowa's shelling started fires on an enemy vessel which appeared to be "either a destroyer or a light cruiser" and made it easy prey for lighter naval units which closed.

Last American Troops To Leave England Feb. 1

LONDON, Aug. 8. — Brig. Gen. E. F. Koenig, commander of the United Kingdom base, said today that all American troops remaining in England—now less than 175,000—were expected to leave by Feb. 1.

Koenig is being succeeded by Brig. Gen. F. S. Strong, Jr., of Detroit, army specialist in closing out operations.

Koenig will continue to command the Chanor base section in northwest France and part of Belgium. He predicted that American installations would be closed out in France, Holland and Belgium "sometime next summer," leaving the only U. S. forces in Europe those in Germany.

KUSHIRO GOES UP IN FLAMES

stration and this they did in the terrifying single blow at the Hiroshima military establishment. Hirohito's captains can see the awful truth about atomic destruction.

Dr. Walter Dill Scott, president emeritus of Northwestern university, says that one atomic bomb dropped on the Mikado's palace would do more, psychologically, to end the war than anything else, because it would give the Japs the face-saving device they have been looking for so desperately. Certainly face-saving is an essential, as this column previously has pointed out, for that is more than bread and meat to the Oriental. Maybe further drastic bombing will be necessary but surely the catastrophe which swooped out of the sky onto Hiroshima would suffice as a face-saving excuse to quit the war.

Japanese spokesmen are busy throwing up a defensive barrage of epithets like "inhuman," "bestial" and "barbaric" while the cabinet meets and tries to figure out what to do. For Japan and for the world in general it will be far better if Tokyo will see reason and quit without further bombardment. However, if they insist on being wiped out, the Allies are in position to do the job quickly.

Whichever way it goes, the war of the Pacific is in the home stretch.

Employment Drop Less Than Hinted

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8. — Government predictions around V-E day that 2,000,000 persons would be jobless now were high of the mark by at least 30 per cent.

Stating this today, a high official of the War Manpower commission said the agency's estimates made three months ago for early August had been "far too pessimistic."

Currently no more than 1,400,000 persons who want jobs are without them, said this official who asked that his name not be used.

This compares with 1,100,000 unemployed in June and 630,000 in March.

"Despite these increases, the whole employment picture is much brighter than we had dared hope it would be at this time," the official stated.

He cited two principal reasons why WMC's original estimate overshoot the actual August total by 600,000:

1. While munitions outbacks have been in line with predictions, their full impact on industry has been delayed beyond expectations.

2. Labor-starved activities such as agriculture, trade and service industries have absorbed workers released from war plants to a much greater extent than anticipated.

INCREASED SUGAR QUOTAS TO CHEER LOCAL HOUSEWIVES

Salem canning sugar users—still "short-changed" on sugar allotments—may be somewhat encouraged by the announcement today that the August quota for the Salem ration board has been more than doubled over the quantity allowed here in July.

Through efforts of the local panel, Salem, originally cut nothing in allowances, has been granted authority to issue 400 pounds of sugar applicants during August. In July only 15,000 pounds were allowed.

Food panel members announced that processing of the applications still on hand has begun and will be issued in six and one-half pounds per person allotments, those now on file.

The applications are being considered and acted upon in the order of their receipt. New applications are placed at the bottom of the list so that users will get them as they are applied.

For a period of more than a month the local board was requested to accept applications but "no-issue" ban has been lifted.

Salem originally was cut completely from issuance because the board here had issued more than June, July and August quota was the shortage became serious.

Early issuance was a technicality that occurred when the board members had tried to get sugar allotments to early canners in the berry crops.
